Panic Terminates Revelry Before St. Paul's Cathedral

Women and Children Trampled and Killed in Wild Rush

LONDON, Jan. 3.—New Year revelry in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, ended in a panic which resulted in the death of a woman and a child and the injury of several others.

The crowd had gathered in the cathedral for the New Year service and the revelry which followed. The panic broke out when a woman fell, and a child was trampled.

The woman, who was identified as Mrs. J. H. Smith, was killed by a trampling. The child, who was identified as John Smith, was also killed.

Several other women and children were injured. The police are investigating the cause of the panic.

The cathedral authorities are taking steps to prevent such a disaster from happening again.

The police are warning the public to be careful when attending such events.

The cathedral authorities are also taking steps to improve the safety of the building.
